FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

2024 AMDA/IPA INTERNATIONAL POMPE PATIENT AND SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE

QUESTION: Is there a fee to attend the Conference?

ANSWER: No. There is no fee to attend the Conference for patients and their families / caregivers.

QUESTION: I heard that the AMDA will pay for one hotel room per patient registered with the AMDA. How will this work?

ANSWER: The AMDA is still in the process of securing funding to support hotel rooms. As soon as more information is available regarding funding, we will announce it through the website, and an email blast to those who have registered with the AMDA.

If funding becomes available, patients must be registered with the AMDA (www.amda-pompe.org) in order to qualify. If you are not sure if you are registered with the AMDA, please email the AMDA Patient Advocate, Marsha Zimmerman, at marsha.zimmerman@amda-pompe.org

This is non-transferable. If you only need a room for 1 night, you CANNOT give the other night to someone else.

Room service, amenities, or other items charged to the room are the sole responsibility of the patient.

QUESTION: Do I have to make my own hotel reservation?

ANSWER: YES, each patient is responsible for making his or her own reservation with the hotel.

The conference will be held at the Holiday Inn Riverwalk from May 3, 2024 – May 5, 2024

QUESTION: Can I bring my children to the conference? Will there be childcare?

ANSWER: Children are welcome to come to the conference if you would like them to be there

There will be a "family room" that will be located close to the conference room.

No babysitting will be provided, but there will be someone available to help with crafts, and other activities for children to do.

Please know that in the past, some children have not been too keen to stay in the family room and wanted to be with their parents.

QUESTION: Where should I go to get to the welcome dinner Friday night?

ANSWER: The Welcome dinner will be held at a special offsite location

- Transportation to and from the event will be provided.
- Everyone will meet in the lobby no later than 5:30pm
- The buses will leave the event to return to the hotel at 9pm.

QUESTION: Will there be something for the conference participants to do on Saturday night?

ANSWER: Yes, the AMDA is planning on having a reception (7-9pm) in the Atrium where the conference participants can network with industry and get to know each other better:

- Karaoke
- Heavy hors d'oeuvres
- Cash bar

Further details will be provided at the conference.
